Description:

An individual residence formed from a cottage, reputed to be some 300 years old together with former Smithy which has been adapted and enlarged to provide a spacious residence from which a Guest House business has been conducted and capable of accommodating 15 guests plus proprietors.

It is set in well-kept gardens with generous parking.

It is conveniently placed for comprehensive neighbourhood amenities including shops, schools etc. and there is easy access to the motorway network and surrounding towns and cities.

Vendors are now seeking to retire and therefore premises are now on offer with the opportunity of continuing the business which has been established for some 35/40 years.

The comprehensive range of fixtures and fittings and equipment are to be included.
